Chill

Plug your guitar into this no-frills analog sine-wave tremolo, dial in your settings and enjoy lush tremolo sounds like those found in vintage Fender® Amps!

The Chill is built with carbon comp resistors and as such it can also produce a warm and harmonically rich boost of your sound by setting the Depth control to 0, and adjusting the Level to your preference.

Be it Spaghetti-Western and Surf sounds or slow and mellow amplitude modulation, the sky is the limit!

"The Chill is a neat little pedal, a clear, quiet, old-fashioned sound with control over the overall level. JAM pedals did a good job!"

Adrian Legg

"It's so musical and warm!"

Kirk Fletcher
